

Biidaaban Healing Lodge

Community Needs/Aftercare Worker

Permanent Full Time

The Biidaaban Healing Lodge is a 12-bed residential treatment program located on Biigtigong Nishnaabeg formerly known as Pic River First Nation, which is approximately 25 kilometers from Marathon, ON. We are mandated to provide quality treatment to all Aboriginal and Metis people residing in the Robinson Superior Treaty area. We provide treatment for unresolved trauma stemming from sexual abuse, family violence, adult children of trauma, grief and abandonment and anger solutions.

Primary Responsibilities:

Working as a team member within the Healing Lodge and in conjunction with the First Nation communities in the area and under the direction of the Executive Director, the community needs/aftercare worker is responsible for:

- ❖ To design and deliver educational programs that exemplify prevention, promotion and aftercare services and deliver them at community level
- ❖ To develop an effective evaluation tool that assesses the needs of our First Nation communities and to define strategies that will meet the needs identified through community needs assessments
- ❖ To deliver aftercare services to individuals who have already accessed our residential treatment programs at community level and to prepare individuals to attend our residential programs
- ❖ To identify promotional strategies aimed at publicizing the Biidaaban Healing Lodge programs at community level
- ❖ To deliver non-residential programs in conjunction with Biidaaban Healing Lodge staff as needed and required
- ❖ A job description is available upon request.

Qualifications:

- ❖ A college degree in Social Work; Psychology or a related field of study with three to five years counselling experience, preferably in a treatment setting with the ability to do individual and group therapy (A combination of education and work experience will be considered.)
- ❖ Experience working with First Nation's individuals, families and communities, and a working knowledge of healing and recovery from a Native perspective.
- ❖ Ability to work independently and as part of a team with strong communication skills, a working knowledge of computer programs to develop pamphlets, posters and other promotional items
- ❖ An understanding of the issues that impact First Nation communities and the Anishinaabek way of life

Salary: $36,000 - $42,000

Interested people are invited to submit resumes, complete with three work related references by 4:00 pm on Wednesday April 25, 2018 to Simone Desmoulin, Executive Director at the address listed below or by email at smdesmoulin@biidaaban.com

We would like to thank you for expressing an interest in joining our team: however only those candidates who qualify for an interview will be contacted.
